THE NIGHTLIFE ISSUE

MODERN LUXURY™

VELVET ROPES, BOTTLE SERVICE, ANOTHER D.U.I. FOR PARIS... THE PARTY'S JUST GETTING STARTED, HOLLYWOOD-STYLE. BUT WHERE TO GO FROM HERE? WILL IT BE GRINDING AT THE COOLEST EURO CLUB IN TOWN? OR POWER-CHUGGING AT AN EASTSIDE DIVE? SEARCHING FOR STARS AT CSUN'S PLANETARIUM OR ON LES DEUX'S SERIOUSLY SEARING PANOT? WHEN IT COMES TO DOING THE L.A. NIGHT RIGHT, THE CHOICES ARE ENDLESS. THE BAD NEWS? YOU'VE ONLY GOT 'TIL DAWN, SO GRAB A GOOD FRIEND (OR, BETTER YET, A GOOD-LOOKING STRANGER) AND DON'T COME HOME UNTIL THE SUN'S UP.

DRINK WITH A SUPERHERO

Power House may be the ganggiest, slickest dive in the immediate vicinity of Hollywood's Hollywood. But the bar does have one tourist-trap-adjacent upside: It's the unofficial green room for the hood's indigenous street-performer circuit, which means it's more likely than not that you'll get to down a Pils with Wonder Woman or Wolverine on any given evening. 1711 N. Highland Ave., 323.663.6733.

PRETEND YOU'RE IN IBIZA

Those in need of a Euro dance fix are flocking to the Avada in Hollywood for Sunday-night electronica beats Avada, which may just be L.A.'s best approximation of a Mediterranean discotheque. Power DJs like Sasha and Tiesto fill the club with bass-heavy beats and all manner of Euro funk. Pass the time between sets cataloging the exotic beverages in 100-plus jars and steadily accented ladies with Daxxella-level tats. 1731 7th St., 323.662.8888.
