THE WEEK L.A. GOES OSCAR WILD

From the secret spas where stars get pampered (for free) to the burger drive-thru they cruise (in their limos) to the hotels where they stay (and play), here's the ultimate insider's guide to the city's Oscar hot spots by Gloria Limón

THE SCOOP At this uber-trendy night spot (Leonardo DiCaprio is a regular) the hot seat is the first booth on the right, farthest from the dance floor—aka the Kirsten Dunst table. But don't go before 11 P.M. or you'll look like a tourist. The drink to order? The key lime martini ($12). 1737 N. Vine St., Hollywood; 323-462-8270
