Who's making up, breaking up and hooking up in Hollywood this week

DATING! JESSICA ALBA & DEREK JETER

NEW YORK
YANKEE Derek Jeter is hitting it big with Honey actress Jessica Alba. The baseball captain, 30, hooked up with the hotter-than-hot actress on June 18 at Hollywood's Spider Club, where they partied until 1 a.m.

The next day, the couple spent most of the evening paired up at Hollywood's XES club at a corner table. "She was touching him, flirting with him and totally batting her eyes at him," says an eyewitness. Once again, the pair stayed until the early morning hours — leaving separately only to reunite at his black SUV in the parking lot. After two dates with Alba, 23, Jeter's Yankees lost two out of three games to the L.A. Dodgers. Hmm, too many late nights, Derek?

A source tells Star that the couple rendezvoused the last time the Yanks were in California to play the Anaheim Angels in May. "Jessica picked up Derek in her car after each game," says the source.

"They stayed at the Hilton Anaheim, and they were always making out in the hallway ways." But Jeter should take note: Alba was recently spied dirty dancing with actor Paul Walker, her co-star in Into the Blue, at L.A.'s Spider Club.

Looks like she's still playing the field.
